Summary:

You put your hands under my shirt
Undid my bra and said these words
"Darling, you're so pretty, it hurts"
You pushed me up against my wall

Threw my clothes down on the floor

"Darling, are you ready for more?"

It was a bad idea

Calling you up

Was such a bad idea

I'm totally fucked

It was a bad idea

To think I could stop

Was such a bad idea

I can't get enough

1. Flaming Hot Cheetos - Clairó

Author's Note:

Yes I meant what I said in tags because Girl in Red is the best. This is as weird as my other books but whatever.

Song for this chapter: Flaming Hot Cheetos by Clairó

Let me introduce myself I'm Y/N L/N. Best Friends with Beverly Marsh, Miles Fairchild, Stanley Barber, Will Byers, Eleven, the rest of The Losers and The rest of The Party. I knew Miles since I was a baby and we've been friends since. I met Will Byers, Mike Wheeler and Lucas Sinclair in Kinder. Then Dustin came along in fourth grade, The Losers and Stanley Barber gang came in middle school. Stanley Barber gang is nothing like Henry Bowers's and Troy Walshs' gang. Stanley Barber's gang is nice and cool. Oh, and did I mention we found out that Mike, Richie, and Miles are related? No? How about Sydney and Bev? Or, Stan aka "Burn out, Stan the Stoner" but he likes it because he's COOL and Stan aka "Bird watcher"? Yeah, well they're twins, and triplets for the other three. But they live in their own homes still so...

Who is dating who?

El is dating Mike

Max is dating Lucas

The rest of them I honestly don't know.

But me and Bev and Will I know what's up with us. Were BI. Well, Will is gay. Me and Bev are Bi, so is my sister and our dad beat us up when we were younger because we acted like boys but it's always been here ALWAYS. Same with Max, Billy beats her up because the way she acts and dresses but were here for her. We told each other when El left for "Curfew" but we know she's just fooling with Mike. We see that little face Will gets when he comes and picks her up. To be honest it's cute and all but it could get annoying. I don't know about them but I kind of have alot of crushes, Bev, Miles, Max, Syd, El a lilttle bit just a little bit, and Mike.

Bev knows about them all except the one on her and her sis, syd.

I'll tell them soon. As if.

And now like right now everybody is at the park where we agreed to meet up skate, smoke, picnic, and hang like the indie little shits we are. But when I say everybody I mean everybody is going to be there. I'll be fine, just fine.

I got Bev's pillow and screamed into it.

She looked away from the mirror and at me.

"Are you okay?" She asked

"Yeah, I'll be perfectly fine" I told her as I lifted my head up and smiled.

"Okay well Will called like 2 minutes ago while you were lost in thought and said he set up already and El said she brought the food so we just need to leave" Bev said

"Could I use one of your bucket hats?" I asked her

"Sure"

"Thanks" I said as I got up and took her daisy printed one.

~~~~~

We got to the park and saw everybody laughing and having a good time. El and Mike had a blanket away from the rest of them which wasn't unusual. I ran to Will first and hugged him. Then I started to say hi to everyone when I finished I noticed Miles wasn't here.

"What's wrong?" Bev asked

"Miles isn't here" I whined

"Mh-mmm isn't he like in his Hawkins version of the Playboy mansion?" She rolled her eyes

"Yeah he's probably just going to be late" I said and looked at the skating area. Billy was across the street watching Steve. Steve was doing some shit with Robin with broken skateboards and setting them on fire. I see a tall figure walking behind his car and when it walks past the car I see it's Miles. With Flora?

"Miles" I call to him

He turns to see who called his name and when he saw us he came running with Flora.

"Hey, stupid Kate made me bring Flora I didn't want to because you know" He made a smoking suggestion

I nodded "Yeah second hand smoke is bad"

"Well, El and Mike are over there away from us not smoking" I said pointing to them

Miles walked over to them but before he did he turned to me "Nice hat by the way" He said and pinched my cheek.

I smiled and walked away to where Bev and Syd were.

"Why are your cheeks pink?" They asked

"Miles" I whispered

"Oh please that's nothing" Bev said

I looked to where El was sitting she was making Mike a flower crown.

I laughed it off.

Bev had her head resting on my thigh.

"Ok" she said as she looked at me and smirked

"Hey Stan"

Stan Barber looked at me.

"Got smokes?"

He smiled and tossed me a pack of cigarettes.

"Thanks"

"Smoke?" I offered Bev and Syd

"Sure" They said in unison and took a cigarette.

Miles walked away from where Mike was and sat by Dustin.

I couldn't help but stare at him and think about what he did.

"Hey umm Bev wanna uh skate?" I asked her

She smiled and nodded.

"So who do you like?" I asked her

"It's a secret" She said cigarette still in had.

I took a puff from mine.

"Aww I told all of mine" I lied

"No one told you to" She said

I frowned.

"Fuck you" I murmured

"Whenever you want darling just say the word and I'll do it" She shot back

I was surprised, but it left and got traded for a smile and a blush.

I didn't realize it but Bev was already skating and doing tricks.

2. Looking Out for You ~ Bev

Summary for the Chapter:

Bev's perspective after the park. It's really, super super short.

I was walking home side aching from laughing too hard. It was fun hanging out with everyone, but we aren't finished. Y/N's parents well, mom and step dad weren't home so we were going to hang out there later. Maybe stroll through the town, something. I just like spending time with her. Just looking out for her like a normal friend would.

I sighed and slammed my diary shut. "Yeah totally normal, normal is not wanting to kiss her every minute" I told myself.

I should just get ready already.

3. Lover is a Day ~ Reader

Summary for the Chapter:

Hmm, mxmtoon is pretty good I agree being bi is not about being 50/50 you kind of lean towards one gender more.

Song for chapter: Lover is a Day - Cuco

The first people that came was Lucas, El and Mike because I live closer to them like, I'm across the street but three houses away. So, if The Wheeler's wanted to they may or may not see what we're doing. Stan was picking up Miles, Dina and Syd were walking with everyone else. So while we were waiting we sat on the roof smoking because we could and no one was going to tell us shit.

Miles and Stan came second. The others last.

We sat on the roof for thirty minutes but I got bored so I took off my clothes and was left in my bra and underwear, and I jumped off.

Into the pool.

Bev came so did El, Syd, Dina and Max. So we were just waiting for the rest of them. And when they jumped in all together we had to go under so we didn't get hit. We were laughing music was playing at a fair volume so the cops wouldn't get called. Mike and El were in a corner making out and in another they Dina, Syd, Stan U, and Stan B were playing chicken fight. Will, Richie, and Eddie were were underwater looking Richie's glasses the other's were just laughing. I swam backwards taking it all in.

It's nice when were all together, outside of school not to mention prom and away from idiots, were in our own world. I bumped in to someone. I looked it was Bev.

"It's nice isn't it?" She asked

I nodded.

"Oh, I learned a new song, can I show you on your guitar?" She asked

"Yeah"

I got out of the pool and gave her a towel and we went up to my room. She closed the door and got my guitar. She sat next to me and started to sing "Girls" by Girl in Red

I've been hiding for so long these feeling they're not gone

Can I tell anyone? Afraid of what they'll say

So I push them away I'm acting so strange

They're so pretty it hurts I'm not talking 'bout boys

I'm talking 'bout girls They're so pretty with their button-up shirts

I shouldn't be feeling this But it's too hard to resist

She stopped.

"What?" I asked

She turned to look at me and smashed into my lips she threw the guitar on the floor. I let her climb on top of me, I let her take my breath away. I let her touch me because I loved her touch and it felt good. We heard the door knob she quickly got off of me and sat in front of my bookcase. The door opened slowly and Miles appeared.

"So Christmas coloring book or the Halloween one?" She asked as she held them up hands were shaking.

"Halloween" I told her

"Y/N why are your cheeks pink?" Miles asked me

"Oh, I'm just cold" I told him

"Well come and let me warm you up" He said dragging me out

We were in the living room now. He got his maroon sweater and started to put it on me being careful. When he saw Bev coming down he narrowed his eyes at her, he grabbed my chin and tilted it up and kissed me. I couldn't see Bev's reaction but all I know is she slammed the door before she left.

~~~~~

When I woke up I was leaning on Miles was on his phone and we were on my couch.

"Did we do anything?" I asked him

He gave me a 'are you stupid or crazy?' look

"No, why would I take advantage of you while you're high and drunk?" he asked

"I got high and drunk?" I asked him

"Yeah, everybody else is asleep in the rooms except Richie and Will they went to get food"

"I gotta go Flora wants to go to the mall" He said and left

I went to the kitchen and took some tylenol for my headache and waited for Richie and Will to come with the food.

Notes for the Chapter:

Hell, I thought this was going to be smut free I'm dead wrong.

4. Softly ~ Bev

Summary for the Chapter:

Just Bev again and what's going through her mind.
She hates Miles, a lot, like a lot.

Song for this chapter: Softly - Clairo

I was running home as fast as I could. I ran up stairs ignoring my aunt and slammed the door shut.

I HATE MILES! I HATE HIM, HATE HATE HATE! Why did he have to do that!? I know he most likely knew what I did of course why else would he do that? I didn't mean to get too close like that. But she let me. Does that mean she likes me? Or maybe she didn't know what to do and let me. GOSH I DON'T KNOW! Miles and Mike. El and Max. That's who she likes. She never mentioned me at all. If she wants to be with Miles it's fine but I'm not talking to her at all.

I could feel the tears falling the salty liquid somehow making it's way into my mouth. I need to get her out of my mind. But how? Air head. Well, Stan Barber. But, still airhead. Most of our friends have weed lying around their houses, but Stan if I end up getting higher than the moon he won't care if I'm Bi or not. Because he is a cool, chill, free spirited, soft indie boy. He's pro LGBTQ+ rights.

I opened my window and jumped out to start walking to his house.

I knocked on the door loudly.

No answer.

I knocked even louder.

Still no answer.

"HEY STAN THE STONER!" I yell

God, I sound like Syd.

Yet no answer.

He must be at Y/N's still.

Aww, Y/N her adorable face and her so kissable-

No, No, NO! Fuck Y/N and her child hood boy friend. If they're even dating or fooling around that is. But I doubt it she'd tell me.

It's hopeless I love Y/N, and boy's think she's straight and she doesn't even care.

And Stanley fucking Barber isn't here to get me high damn it.

5. Sink into the Floor ~ Reader

Summary for the Chapter:

Song for this chapter: Sink into the Floor - Feng Suave

I sat at the table, my head in my hands.

Outside the front door I could hear "I like that song." I ran to the front door opening it quickly and taking the hamburgers from Richie and Will.

"My saviors I love you" I gasped

I heard somebody coming down the stairs.

Janice or my older sibling, Stanley Barber and Mike Wheeler.

"Hey Y/N" Janice said

"Hi"

"Miles invited me and you to the mall" Mike said

"And the others?" I asked with a mouthful of hamburger.

He looked at his phone and started typing.

"Yeah they could come" He walked into the kitchen and sat by me

"Cool" I said

Everyone else came down right when I said that.

"We heard the mall" El said

"I think you should go home with Hopper and Max" Mike said sourly

I made a confused face at Lucas. He shook his head at me and sat in the living room.

"Don't tell her what she should do" Max said making a stink face.

Mike growled and pushed himself violently off the table and sat by Lucas. I stared at him for a while still eating my hamburger. I shrugged it off and decided that I would turn into a detective later. But, for now I was hungry and hungover.

"You know that Mr. Clarke wanted to leave middle school to teach high school to catch up with us?" Mike told me while we were riding our bikes to the mall.

I was riding with him and we were on Stan, Syd and Bev's street.

"Yes Wheeler, I was there" I told him as I looked at Bev's house hoping she was sitting by her window and she was but flipped me off as we were passing.

I sighed.

"Well, prom is coming up. Do you have a date Y/N?" He asked

"No. You?" I asked him

"I was going with El but, it's difficult" He said looking at El and Max sharing a bike.

"Yeah, what happened this morning?" I asked him

He sighed slowing down "Max broke up with Lucas, then told El she liked her and El broke up with me they went into a-" He cut himself off

I looked at El and Max.

"Oh" was all that came out

"Well we could go as a group all of us" I suggested.

He didn't say anything and kept on pedaling until we got to the mall.

I hopped off and ran to Flora.

"So where we going first?" I asked her

"The ice cream place" She said and started skipping

I skipped with her and headed to Scoop's Ahoy.

"So, how's school?" I asked her when we were sitting in a booth big enough for all of us.

"Nice, but some people are mean" She said

"Yeah, take it from us well, besides Dina and Miles because they're popular and all that. But, people will bully you and you just gotta move on ya' know?" I asked her

She looked down and nodded slightly.

I felt bad for her "Unless you're Miles Fairchild's sister he'll beat them up, right Miles?" I asked him

He looked at us "What?"

"Beat up my Bully's" Flora said excited.

Miles looked at me shook his head slightly and chuckled "Sure Flora I'll do that"

Flora smiled even wider and went on to talking about other things.

~~~~~

"So, where will we go next?" Stan B. asked

"Your own damn houses" I replied to them

"But we don't want to go home" Sydney whimpered while she hugged Dina

"We could go to my house and hang" Stan B. suggested

"Me and Y/N will go home Robin, Steve, and Nancy are coming over anyways" Janice said

"What about Jonathan?" Will asked

"Him too" Janice said

"Well, see ya" They said and started biking.

"Hey wait" Miles called

Me and Janice turned around

"Could I drop off Flora real quick and come over?" He asked

"Yeah for sure bye" Janice said and started walking off with me.

"Why the fuck do your friends not go home?"

"I don't know" I answered

We went the route that was quicker to get home.

6. I am Robin's Froggy~Reader

Summary for the Chapter:

Constant Conversations - Passion Pit

Notes for the Chapter:

You wanna know how much I've had re write this? 6 fucking times! Bcuz my stupid ass computer decided to restart every time I shut it. Like YOU never done that! WHY NOW?! YOU BITCH I FORGOT EVERYTHING THAT I HAD FIRST WROTE NOW I- I need to stop writing this in all caps I am so mad at this one it wasn't as funny as the first one (As if I am funny). But, キタ——(° ∇° )——!!!!

If you don't understand what that says it basically means "It's here!"

As we got closer to the house I saw Robin, Nancy, Jonathan, and Steve waiting by the door.

"Nance, Robin" I called getting their attention. I ran to them and gave them a hug.

"Back off she's mine" Janice snapped as she got closer and opened the door.

I made my way into my room to put on my frog pajama's Robin and Mike gave me. When he saw them he wanted to get them as a christmas present but didn't have enough money so Robin pitched in the rest.

"Ribbit Ribbit" I said as I entered Janice's room

"Ahh, froggy I'm glad I am your mother" Robin squealed.

"Uh, I am CEO of this company" Steve pointed to himself

"CEO of what company?" Robin asked

"CEO of being a mother to these children" Steve said

"Well, the kids made me the leader now. Isn't that right Y/N?" Robin asked

"Uh, I don't know"

"Say yes, say yes, say yes" Robin chanted

"I don't have anything to say in this" I told Robin

"Dingus!" She shouted at me

"I'm not a dingus, I'm an idiot. If anything Miles is a dingus"

Jonathan, Nancy, and Janice burst into laughter and someone in the hallway. Wait, in the hallway?

I got up and walked to the door and opened it cautiously.

"Hmm, weird I thought I heard someone laughing in the hallway"

I looked at everyone and they had a weird look on their face.

"What?" I asked

"Boo" I heard from behind me

"Moo!" I shouted

Everyone burst into laughter.

I glared at Miles who stood over me with a victorious smirk on his face.

I got up and walked over to the bed sitting next to Steve.

"So, uh, Steve, Max and I were talking maybe two weeks ago about a road trip to California before prom" I said raising my eyebrows at him

He looked at me with his shades on "And?" He asked

"Maybe you could drive us and everyone else" I said

"Dingus! How would everyone fit in one car and how would we pay for expenses?" Robin asked

"First off, not a dingus. Second, Your right we could use everyone of your guys' car and the expenses everyone has money saved up"

"Yeah, probably won't be enough with all of our money combined. What about you Miles?" Janice asked

"Yeah, what about you bro aren't you rich or something?" Nancy asked

"Sure, I could help I guess. You peasants" He said the last part jokingly

We all glared at him.

"Anyways, anyone up for a movie cuddle?" Janice suggested

As soon as Janice said that our two dogs and three cats came into the room.

"I found my cuddle buddies!" Steve exclaimed

"Aww, no fair" I said crossing my arms

"Shut up, you weren't the only one that wanted them to be your buddy" Miles said

"Well, you know what that means" Janice said calmly "Buddies!" She then yelled throwing a blanket at us

I grumbled silently as I walked down the stairs Miles behind me with the blanket.

Janice turned on the T.V then grabbing the remote and going in the blanket with Robin. Who was right next to me.

She put on Sex Education not one of those boring videos but the Television Show.

"So, I was thinking we could go and try to talk to Bev in the morning and ask her if she wants to go with us on the trip" I suggested

"Yes, now shut up I'm trying to watch this"

"No, I'm not a kid no more you can't talk to me like that I am changed"

"You're right you are not the same you like both genders" He said looking me in my eyes

"And? Hurt her I hurt you" Robin said looking at us both

"I don't mind what she likes"

Once they finished staring at each other dead in the eyes for two minutes, they went back to watching the show.

I thanked Miles for not caring, and glad Robin would be there for me now to figure out Beverly.

7. We plan in one hour tops ~ Reader

Summary for the Chapter:

Song for this chapter: Passion fruit - Drake

When I woke up I was lying on one of the dogs everyone was asleep. Except, for Miles he was nowhere to be seen. I got up and checked the room until I heard water running in the bathroom.

I went to the restroom and saw Miles shaving.

"Yeah, please tell me that, that is your own razor"

"I found it it has a FJK on the side" he said pointing to the side

"FJK as in For Janice's Kitty?" I asked smirking

He looked at me with wide eyes.

"Bleugh" he started washing his face quickly

"Yeah"

"You couldn't warn me earlier?" He asked

"No, I was asleep" I said popping the P.

He said something under his breath. "Come on let's go we got to try to talk to Bev" He said pushing me

~~~~~

We stood in front of Beverly's aunts house waiting for someone to answer.

We knocked a third time. We heard the locks being messed with.

"Hello Y/N" Beverly's aunt answered

"Uh, hi could we talk to Bev?" I asked

"Sure" She smiled and let us in

We walked in and went to her room and knocked.

She opened it and seemed surprised to see us.

"We wanted to see if you want to come with us on a road trip with us before prom" Miles said

She avoided eye contact.

"Okay" She answered

"Okay then we'll start planning more thoroughly tonight at 7:30" I said walking away

"I'll go" She started "If you apologize"

Me and Miles looked at each other.

"I'm sorry" we said in unison

"And" She looked at us "If you say these words, I'm stupid, really and utterly dumb and a useless human being"

Me and Miles repeated the words she told us to say.

"Good see you tonight" She said slamming the door

"That was easy" Miles said

I nodded.

We went to every single one of our friends house to tell them to be there and they agreed.

~~~~~

Everyone was sitting in a circle in the living room.

"So, were going on a road trip?" Mike asked

"Yes, before prom so" I said

"Okay, seat orders who's going with who?" Robin asked getting paper

She wrote Steve's car, Robin's car, Nancy's car, Jonathan's car, and Janice's car

"We have like 17 people? Counting myself" I asked everyone. They nodded

"So four people in my car, four people in Steve's, three people in Nancy's, Janice's and Jonathan's" Robin stated

"I'll go with Steve" Mike said

"Same" Dustin, Bill and Lucas said

"I'll go with Janice" Syd said

Stanley Uris nodded, so did Dina.

"I'll go with Jonathan" Will said

"Yep" Richie and Eddie said

"I'll go with you" I said happily to Robin

"Me too" Stanley Barber said pulling out his phone

"I'll go too" Miles said

"I'll go with Nancy" Ben said

"Me and Max will also go with Nancy" El said

"And you Beverly?" Robin asked

"I'll go with you" she muttered

"Amazing. Now expenses, you all have to bring your own money. Soooo, gas. We'll probably stay in a hotel once or twice and food we'll all pitch in" She nodded

"That was quick" Barber said

"Robin's quick Stan, she doesn't take like 3 hours" I said getting my own phone out of my pocket.

"I have a question though why are four people allowed in Steve and your car but not the other's?" Ben asked

"Because my car is a new Subaru and Steve's is a new-" She paused "Pry-us?"

"Oh my god, Prius it's a Pree-us" He sounded it out

I held laughter in and couldn't hide my smile. (a/n: I like Subaru's especially when you go to car meets and see them with anime on the side like omfg)

9. My friend's sister's crush ~ Reader

Summary for the Chapter:

Song for this chapter: Was it Something I Said -
MyKey ft. Cavetown

"You wanna know what I realised" I said walking beside Stan B. and Stan U.

"What?" They asked

"We didn't finish never have I ever yesterday" I told them

"What?" Uris asked

"We made a group chat with who we would drive with" Stan B. said to him

We saw Miles walking across the street.

"Miles!" We called

He looked our way and started lifting his hand.

The fan girl group walking close behind him gasped and started chattering about him and us.

He glanced at them and put his head back down.

Stan U. winced.

"Are you okay?" I asked him

"Yeah, it hurts he wouldn't want to be caught with us but after school he doesn't care even if they see us" He said

"Yeah, it's confusing" I said

"Hey, y'all want to go to Mike's after school just us and whoever wants to come or goes?" Stan B. asked

We both nodded

"I wish we rode our bikes to school my teachers gave me three ginormous books to study" I said adjusting my backpack

"Hey guys!" Miles said running over to us

"Let's just keep walking I've had enough for today" Stan B. said

(a/n: I think I'll call Stanley Uris, Stanley, and Stanley Barber, Stan)

We interlocked arms and ran to Mike's house Miles close behind us.

~~~~~

"Mrs.Wheeler" We yelled outside the door

She opened the door and let us in.

"Thank you" We said and opened the door to the basement

When we got a whiff of it, it smelled horrible like fart, rotten things, smoke, weed and perspiration.

"Mike? You here?" Stan asked

"Maybe he's still at school, walking or riding home" I said

Then we heard the front door open.

"Ooh, quickly but quietly, let's go down there and wait on the couch for him like creeps. And, when he gets down here we say at the same time 'Hi, Mike' Stanley said

"Devious" I said narrowing my eyes at him "I like it"

We ran quietly down the stairs of the basement and sat on the couch. The door to the basement after a few minutes and we heard foot steps.

"Hi Mike" We said staring at him

He stared back at us "Uh, hi?"

"What are you guys doing here?" He asked

"They wanted to visit, but found out you weren't here so they had a plan to scare you" Lucas said getting out of the fort Mike made for El.

We stared at him "You skipped class?" Stanley asked him

"Don't act so surprised we have all skipped class" He said

"Yeah, but were going on a trip the least you could do is have good attendance until we leave" I reasoned

"I'm going through a break up" He mentioned

"Yeah, so is Mike" I said getting up and walking over to Mike with Chips in hand "But he's a good Golden Retriever boi and goes to school" I said going on tip toes to pat the top of his head then getting a chip out and putting it near his mouth.

He looked at me and the chip for a while, I gave him a friendly smile and put it closer to his mouth. He opened his mouth and took the chip between his teeth adjusting it with his hand so he could eat it.

"My hair isn't golden and strange thing for you to say and do" He said

I shrugged and sit down.

"Wait, could you believe your brother wouldn't be caught dead with us?" Stanley asked

"Richie or Miles?" Mike asked

"Miles he is super scandalous" Stan said eating a pringle

"I know he's-" Mike stopped himself

I waited for someone to break the tension. Nobody did. I sighed. I guess I'll have to make the first move.

"Anyone up for Umbrella Academy?" I asked "I am, I'm sure Holly is too" I said running up the stairs to get Holly and to start the show

(a/n: I want to make an Umbrella Academy fic with Stranger Things probably some other time)

~~~~~

We all sat in the living room and saw Five yell at Luther that he was the daddy. Indeed he was.

Holly thought everything that came out of his mouth was funny for some wait-

I looked at Holly and saw a tint on her cheeks. I rolled my head all around and looked at Mike. He noticed and looked my way. I motioned towards her and widened my eyes. He got up and sat next to Holly and noticed too.

And he did the only brotherly thing possible.

"Ooooh, Holly likes Five, Holly likes Five" He taunted

Holly looked at him and screamed "No I don't! Shut up!"

Stan, Stanley and Lucas looked our way and raised their eyebrows.

"Holly-" Lucas tried saying something

But Mike interrupted.

"Oooh, ooooh, You like Five"

Causing Holly to scream louder.

I covered both their mouths and whispered in Mikes ear "Shut up before I punch you in the throat"

Lucas started again "Holly you know he isn't real well the actor is but Five no"

She shook her head.

"Okay, yeah he's not real" Lucas said crossing his arms and laying down.

I stared at him and felt Mike licking my hand to indicate he wanted me to stop

"Ewww" I squealed and punched him in the throat anyway

He started gasping for air.

"You'll get to breathe in a while just hold your breath a little" I said then turned back to the show

10. Chapter 10

I stroll over to the Wheeler's. I would run but I didn't want to because they're just across the street.

I knock and step back waiting for someone to open it.

"Lucas, Hi!" I say when he opens it.

"Hi" He replies

He puts his hand out waiting for something.

I study it a little bit then come to a conclusion, "Handshake" I whisper

He nods.

Slap, Slap, Up, Down, Fist Pump, and Feathers.

I walk in and go to the kitchen.

"Mrs.Wheeler" I call for her attention

"Hi, Y/N how're you doing?" She asks

"Good, uh, I came to ask for a huge favor" I say

"Oh? And what might that be?"

"I came to ask if you could take care of our pets"

She stares at me.

"I mean you don't have to, It's just mom and dad our out of town for a while were going on a road trip I'm not sure if Mike told you-"

She stops me "That would be fun, Holly could perhaps prove to me that she deserves a puppy" She smiles sweetly "Oh, and yes Mike told me about the trip I need to call the school to let them know you should advise everyone to do the same. Also, Mike doesn't know what to pack"

I nod "Yes, I will thank you so much Mrs.Wheeler"

I go upstairs and see Nancy and Jonathan nothing unusual. But, when I get to Mike's room his belongings are everywhere.

"Uh, what?" I say

"Oh, my gosh you will not believe how much help I need"
